Still See Me? - Motorcycle

40-something Guy:

I used to be the guy you'd see riding a big ol' bike down
the highway.

Don't have that bike anymore.
Sold it when I lost my license for riding drunk.

You may still see me, though.
Now I'm the guy picking up trash, in a fluorescent vest that says "Community Service".

SFX: single music chord

ANNCR:

Cops are cracking down on drinking and riding.
And they'll see you before you see them.
Ride sober, or get pulled over.
Paid for by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.
