

Department of Transportation (DOT) National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) Clearinghouse for Older Road User Safety (ChORUS)

The Clearinghouse for Older Road User Safety (ChORUS) at roadsafeseniors.org provides links to resources for the General Public, State Highway Safety Offices (SHSO) and other partners for the development of evidence-based programs to determine initial and renewing applicants' fitness to drive. It will provide technical assistance to licensing agencies working to adopt the Driver Fitness Medical Guidelines (NHTSA, September 2009) and Highway Safety Program Guideline 13 – Older Drivers. ChORUS provides a moderated forum for discussions of older driver topics for State Motor Vehicle Administration officials and other subject matter experts as well as an open forum for public discussions and upcoming events. Like us on Facebook (facebook.com/roadsafeseniors) and follow us on Twitter (twitter.com/RoadSafeSeniors).

This screenshot shows a page from the ChORUS website. The navigation bar is identical to the previous screenshot. The breadcrumb trail is 'HOME / RESOURCES / FAMILY / CAREGIVER RESOURCES AND ALTERNATIVE TRANSPORTATION'. The main image shows an older man sitting in a vehicle while a caregiver assists him. Below the image, the heading 'FAMILY / CAREGIVER RESOURCES AND ALTERNATIVE TRANSPORTATION' is displayed. To the left of the search bar, there is introductory text about the availability of agencies and the support provided by ChORUS. To the right, a search bar is titled 'SEARCH FOR RESOURCES' and includes dropdown menus for 'Resource Category' and 'Resource type', both set to '- Any -', and a text input field for 'Keywords'.
